Twin City
News Notes

Tomorrow, Thursday evening, at 7:00 o'clock the primary and beginners department of the Congregational Sunday school, numbering over a hundred little children between the ages of four and eight, will give the Christmas program. At the close of the program the usual celebration will take place in the large dining hall.

The Esther Rebekahs at Indiana Harbor will conclude their year's program by initiating a large class of candidates tomorrow evening with the Whiting degree staff conferring the honors. A committee has been appointed to serve refreshments. All members are urged to be present.

Mrs. A. W. Richeson of North Baring ave. is arriving home tomorrow from an extended visit of a month to Paris in Oklahoma where her two children, accompanied her and where relatives homes were visited.

The East Chicago Elks are meeting tomorrow evening with a class of candidates announced ready for admission. They will also serve luncheon at the conclusion of the regular order of business.

Christmas services at the Church of the Good Shepherd will be as follows: Midnight mass and sermon on Christmas eve at 11 p. m. Second mass, without sermon, on Christmas morning at 8 o'clock. The offering at both services will be for the parish treasury which is in need of funds. A liberal Christmas donation is requested. The Sunday school Christmas tree will be in the Guild room of the church at 6:30 p. m. on Christmas eve.

A Christmas party and entertainment will be given tomorrow evening at the Salvation Army headquarters in South Olcott ave. The kettles that have been on the streets gathering funds makes the festivity possible with other assistance that will be rendered in the way of Yule Tide cheer to unfortunates. While times are stressed at this particular season of the year owing to many being out of employment there are many encouraging small amounts dropped from day to day in the army kettles and all the more appreciated when conditions are counted and the willingness of the giver taken into account. There is a real need for charity in a few homes in the Twin Cities and the Salvation Army will supply as far as possible the relief. The public is welcome to the entertainment tomorrow evening.

The death of Charles Anderson occurred yesterday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Herbert Francisco, 4825 Magoun ave. The deceased was eighty-two years of age and came to this city from Valparaiso some twelve years ago and resided here ever since. Two sons, John and Charles, resided at the same address and are unmarried. The other children left consist of a daughter, Mrs. Anna Ritz of Valparaiso and a son, Frank of the same city.

Funeral services will be conducted by Rev. George H. Jones, pastor of the First M. E. church of East Chicago, at two o'clock tomorrow afternoon and interment will be at Oak Hill cemetery, Hammond.

Election of officers was perfected at a meeting of St. Anne's Rosary Society on Sunday afternoon at St. Mary's church in 144th st. President, Mrs. Jan. O'Toole; vice-president, Mrs. Martin Broderick; secretary, Mrs. F. Furbeck; treasurer, Mrs. Theodore Lohrke. The parties held monthly throughout the year will be resumed after the holidays and announcements made as to the dates selected.

Mrs. Frances Stroud of the city treasurer's office and a resident of the Wicker Apartments was hostess to the young ladies employed in the city hall building, honoring Miss Lillian Hughes also of the treasurer's office and soon to become the bride of John McKenna. The decorations were suggestive of the approaching Christmas tide and the nature of the event itself was a shower in recognition of the date. There were many pretty gifts bestowed and a delightful evening spent in social intercourse and five hundred. Miss Beatrice McCormick won honors in the card game.
